

Names and symbols of old currencies

Names of currencies changed over the centuries. The most common were Daler, Mark and Skilling, later Sletdaler or Rigsdaler, Mark and Skilling.

Below you will find tables of the symbols in Gothic script that were used to denote the various denominations.

The tables are courtesy of Camilla Luise Dahl and Aneklubben.

The denominations of Daler, Mark and Skilling, 16th and 17th centuries

	daler	mark	skilling
16. - 17. årh..

The denominations of Daler, Mark and Skilling, 17th century

	daler	mark	skilling
17. årh.

The denominations of Daler, Mark and Skilling, 18th century

	daler	mark	skilling
18. årh.

The denominations of Sletdaler, Rigsdaler, Album/Hvid and Penning, 17th to 19th centuries

	sletdaler	rigsdaler	album/hvid	penning
17-19. årh.

